LASKER PANS DECISION OF ATTY GENERAL

Says Daugherty Greatest Lawmaker of All Times, and Greater Than Moses

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Across the banquet hall last night Chairman Lasker of the shipping board told Attorney General Daugherty and other guests that the attorney general's recent ruling that all ships entering American waters must be dry was the greatest blow that could have happened to the American merchant marine.

"I can prove Mr. Daugherty is the greatest lawmaker of all times," Lasker said. "He made the Red sea dry."

Lasker said that while he personally was not a seafarer, he spoke neither as a sailor nor as a dry, but from the standpoint of the shipping board. "I have seen in press statements he made his decision to conform to political expediency to aid the merchant marine bill. I never knew what the decision was until President Harding announced it," he said. "As a good politician, if he felt he was helping American ships, he did it without advising with me. I want foreign ships to come in, as is their right. We'll pay for the passengers are foreigners and will not subscribe to our views."

FOOTBALL ON COAST IS BELOW STANDARD

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—Only three Pacific coast conference football games will be played this year by the Oregon Aggies, California and the University of Southern California as a result of Stanford's recent resignation from the organization.

The three schools have games scheduled, but they will not count in the table of conference standings.

Washington also plays Stanford, but the loss of this contest from its organization has cut its conference games down to five. Washington State college has six conference games on its schedule, the largest number of any team this year. Oregon and Idaho each have four games.

The first conference game, played last Saturday between Washington and Idaho, was won by the former. Tomorrow Washington goes into another conference game, this time against the Oregon Aggies at Seattle. Washington State and Idaho are scheduled for a conference game today at Moscow.

One week from tomorrow the conference schedule gets going in full blast, with Oregon playing Idaho at Portland, Washington playing Washington State at Pullman, and California meeting Southern California at Los Angeles. On that date Stanford meets the O. A. C. at Corvallis.

JUSTICE DAY READY TENDER RESIGNATION

MIDSHIPMAN TRIAL FINALLY FINISHED

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 21.—The trial of Midshipman Bruce H. Robinson of the first class, charged with having hazed Midshipman William H. McGreggor of the fourth class, was completed today before a court-martial at the naval academy. The finding of the court will not be announced until acted upon by the reviewing authority.

The only point at issue was the degree of hazing, as Robinson admitted he caused McGreggor to do certain physical stunts, though he had no authority to do so. He claimed, however, he had nothing to do with the third infliction, which was just previous to the physical collapse of the underclassman.

PORTLAND WILL FIGHT ATTEMPT RED INVASION

Wobblers Will Be Given No
Quarter in Metropolis
of Northwest

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 21.—The Portland police, with an extra squad, is on guard today against an "invasion" of the Industrial Workers of the World, who, according to a statement published by Mayor Baker, have "assaulted Portland as the center for the beginning of trouble intended ultimately to assume the proportions of a revolution."

According to the mayor's assertion, the purpose of the I. W. W., as explained in handbills and distributed broadcast in Portland, is summed up in these words from the handbills: "Let us organize with the object and purpose of taking possession of transportation and carrying it on for our benefit."

The mayor took issue with local labor officials for a statement they had given out concerning the present water front strike. It was in connection with the strike he had ordered the police to round up suspected members of the I. W. W. He declared the strike had been called by I. W. W. longshoremen in a meeting held while non-radical members were at work.

Slaughter, former Chico clergyman, was released on parole today from state's prison here, where he had been confined since May, 1916, following his conviction of betraying Gertrude Lamson, 16-year-old member of his flock. There was no one to meet him at the prison, but it was understood relatives were waiting in a nearby town to accompany him to Porterville.

MANHATTAN IS BEGINNING TO SHOW ACTIVITY

Gold Camp Staging Comeback
of Sensational Nature That Promises Big Results

Reports from Manhattan are to the effect that the gold camp of Nye county is thriving and that there is much activity in evidence. The White Caps Mining company is prosecuting a big campaign of development with the result that a heavy production of bullion is being made at the big mill. A force of 60 men is being employed in the mine and mill, and the semi-monthly shipment of gold will be made within the next two or three days, the bullion bar being brought to Tonopah and deposited in the Nevada First National bank of Tonopah, pending shipment to the mint.

The Putney placers will soon be producing and mining operations on a broad scale will be in order about Nov. 1. In the meantime the task of installing the power line that will have a length of nearly two and one-half miles is being rushed, to make connection with the Manhattan-Round Mountain high tension line. Development of the placer ground has been in order for the last several months, and once actual placering is started, it is expected that work can be carried forward without interruption throughout the winter months.

Construction work on the new 50-ton mill for the Manhattan Consolidated company is to be rushed and it is probable that the plant will be ready to begin ore treatment within the next 90 days. It is estimated that the available ore reserves on his property exceed $1,000,000, and considering that the mill is being planned with a view of equipping it especially for the treatment of ore from the property, it would seem that the company has a bright outlook from a production standpoint.

To this must be added $15,000 from the White Caps mill for each 15-day period, which would make the result as follows: Last half of September, $204,520; first half of October, $254,926.

The production of the first half of October from the four milling plants of the Tonopah district was as follows:

Tonopah Belmont	$ 89,558

PROHIBITION ORDER WILL BE EFFECTIVE TONIGHT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The terms of the prohibition amendment and Volstead act as interpreted by Attorney General Daugherty will become effective at midnight tonight, it was learned, in the absence of a home order from the federal court, which would alter the situation. BEN HUR EXT. BUYS PROPERTY AT RANDBURG

Blue Bell Claim Is Taken Over and Orders for Equipment
Have Been Placed

Another Tonopah mining company has entered the Randburg district, and a big campaign of development is promised for the property, which has been taken over by purchase. With the return last night of R. J. Kelly and Albert Kelly from California's sensational mining camp, announcement was made that the Blue Bell claim, one of the most promising properties in that section and lying within the very heart of the proven mineral zone, had been purchased and that orders had been placed for a modern electrical plant of machinery which will be installed immediately.

The Blue Bell lies within 1500 feet of the Ben Hur property and adjoins the Baltic, both of which have been developed to the shipping stage, and two distinct ledges have been exposed that pan freely of gold, both at the surface and from prospect holes that have been sunk from 12 to 14 feet. It is proposed to start work immediately in the sinking of a shaft, and within a comparatively short time a well defined campaign of development will be under way.

The Ben Hur Extension Mining company was originally a Divide corporation. Although listed on the San Francisco stock exchange, very little stock was issued, with the result that the company is practically intact. It is officered practically by the same men who are directing the affairs of the Ben Hur Mining company, as follows: President, R. J. Kelly; vice president and treasurer, Albert Kelly; secretary, Clarence Kind; director and consulting engineer, A. B. Hall.

LIKE THE BEAR, DEMOCRATS SEEK SOLACE IN HOLE

All Efforts of Republicans to Smoke Them Out Have So Far Been Unavailing

Reno, Nev., Oct. 20, 1922. Hon. William McKnight, Chairman, Democratic State Central Committee, Reno, Nev.

Dear Sir: Your refusal to accept our challenge to debate through the columns of the press the administration of state affairs by your party convinces us that you are unwilling to lay your record, in writing, before the people of Nevada. It is evident that you fear to meet the issue before the people of all the state in a full, complete and straightforward manner and submit your case to them.

In your original challenge you proposed a debate in one hall in one city. We demanded in our reply that the whole state be included in the audience. We insisted that the discussion be carried on through the press of the state, so that all might learn the facts.

We challenged you to record your defense in black and white upon the printed page. In our opening statement we charged that the cost of Nevada's government had increased 122 per cent in eight years, and that unwarranted extravagance prevailed at Carson City. Our figures are based upon official state reports, made by state officials, and are of record. To date you have not met the charge.

You say that you are willing to proclaim your case orally, but you decline to submit it in writing for the careful examination of the taxpayers. An oral presentation of such a maze of figures in other cities would be no more effective than here.

You know very well that the statistics of state government, covering a period of 12 years or more, cannot be retained or compared by any audience, even if composed of expert accountants, when submitted orally. You also know that it would be exceedingly dangerous for you to commit your statistics to writing and lay them before the people.

In our opinion you never desired to debate this issue.

You give us to understand that a debate upon the facts, through the press, would interfere with your publicity campaign. We, and likewise the people of Nevada, must then logically conclude that you do not intend to deal with the facts, nor present them as revealed by the official reports of the state, in your publicity campaign.

Our challenge still stands. If you are willing to have the record of your office-seekers exposed to the public view you will accept it. If you fail, you stand convicted of the charges which we have publicly made.

Failing to have your acceptance of the original offer, we will proceed with the exposure of your party's record, and will give no further attention to your communications.

Prepare to defend yourselves before an overtaxed people.

Very truly yours,
SILAS E. ROSS, Chairman,
Republican State Central Committee.

CINNABAR MINE NOT OPTIONED TO ANY PARTY

Story Appearing in Discredited
Sheet Wholly Without Any Foundation Whatever

The story published in the moonshine sheet that the property of the Mina Mercury company had been optioned to Jamestown, Calif., capitalists is without one scintilla of truth. In fact, the property, which is conceded to be the greatest and richest deposit of cinnabar on the Pacific coast cannot and will not be optioned, although it is for sale, and first come first served.

The story recently published in the moonshine sheet is on a party with all other items that appear in that publication, made purely out of whole cloth, and it is little wonder that the people have ceased to give credence to its wallings.

The Mina Mercury company controls a wonderful cinnabar deposit and a substantial production has been made—truly wonderful when one considers the amount of development that has been performed. There are four lenses on the property that have never been prospected, and engineers predict that in time it will become recognized as one of the world's greatest cinnabar mines. It is owned by W. W. Booth, editor of the Bonanza, who is the heaviest stockholder; Al Revert of San Diego, Henry Seitz and Ralph Wardle of Tonopah and Al Wardle of Ogden.

Mining men throughout the country, both east and west, are being attracted to this property, which carries values of from 2 to 25 per cent quicksilver, while the retorts have averaged from 9 and 10 per cent. All 3 per cent ore is being placed on the waste dump for a furnace of 25 or 30 tons capacity. There are hundreds of tons of this 2 and 3 per cent ore now available. The Mina Mercury company surely has the wonder cinnabar deposit today on the entire Pacific slope.

REPUBLICAN RALLY AT REESE RIVER

North, nominee for county clerk and treasurer; Mrs. Lida Gilbert, nominee for auditor and recorder; J. P. Kennison, nominee for sheriff and assessor; J. E. Peck and Charles E. Southworth, nominees for short and long term commissioners, respectively; Charles D. Keough, W. H. Royston and Mrs. Theresa Henderson, nominees for the assembly.

WILL DEVELOP HOMESTEAK MINE SITUATED TWENTY-SEVEN MILES FROM RENO

The Silver King Divide Mining company has taken over the Homestake mine in Washoe county, located 27 miles northwest of Reno, and a comprehensive campaign of development will shortly be under way. The Homestake is an old producer and was located in 1873 and is credited with a production of $350,000, but for many years has lain dormant pending settlement of the Griffith estate.

The property has been developed in the past by what is known as the upper tunnel that has a length of 350 feet, and considerable shipping ore is in sight. The lower tunnel has been driven for 60 feet on the vein and commercial ore is showing nearly for 60 feet on the vein, while an old shaft has a depth of 175 feet, with plenty of shipping ore blocked. Work by the Silver King Divide has already been inaugurated with L. T. Brockbank serving as resident superintendent.

The Silver King Divide Mining company is officered by men prominent in financial and mining circles, as follows: Jacob Berger of Seattle, president; R. L. Colburn, well-known broker of San Francisco, vice president; W. T. McPherson of San Francisco, secretary and treasurer, and Gust Hanson, prominent mining man of Tonopah, general manager.

Mr. Hanson stated this morning that the company would be provided for in a financial way in a liberal manner, and that it was planned to carry forward large development with a view of placing the property upon a self-supporting and dividend-paying basis in as short a time as possible.

MILLER POUNDS FACTS HOME IN REAL FASHION

As an Empire Builder He Stands
Second to No Man in This Great Sagebrush State

ELKO, Nev., Oct. 21.—A crowded house heard John H. Miller and party last night. Miller said: "I will first give my attention to the need of government reform where hit by the ever-increasing taxes we are compelled to pay. I entered the campaign with the slogan 'Economy,' and if elected that will be my program. The ever-increasing valuation and tax rate hits every taxpayer and has retarded the advancement of investment. It can be corrected by a plain business method which I propose to put into practice if elected. I am interested in good roads and would spend money to get results. This is not a criticism of the highway department, but a statement of my plan. I would pay more attention to the development of intra-state roads and spend more money on construction and less for surveys. I would endeavor to get the government to divert some of the millions spent every year for reclamation of river and harbor improvement to Nevada streams, which would mean much to state development. The democratic papers say I am a wildcat. I admit it. A wildcat is one who seeks to develop a commercial mine or oil well. If he succeeds it is here; he is a benefactor, and if he fails he is branded a wildcat. I have lost money in mines and made more by others. I am now engaged with others in drilling an oil well at Fallon. The oil well is being drilled right at your door and if successful it means millions for its promoter and the state. If no oil is found the men who drilled the well will be branded wildcaters and maybecrooks by the unthinking."

Griffith, Alexander, Blackwell and Atkinson spoke. The latter said "Nevada is now under the government of commissions made by the governor and other state officials. Back Governor Miller with an official family of his own political creed, so he may carry out his program."

LLOYD GEORGE SAYS BANNER STRIKE LOOMS

People of Country Must Decide
Whether Party or Nation
Is Considered First

LEEDS, England, Oct. 21.—Retiring Premier Lloyd George, speaking of the coalition of liberals here, declared "the banner of party strife" has been hoisted at a recent meeting of the conservatives at the Carlton club, which voted against continuing the coalition. It is for the people of this country to decide whether the party comes first or nation first. I stand for the people," he exclaimed.

Lloyd George asserted the coalition which achieved the victory in the late war had been brought to an end, not because it had ceased to save the nation but a party was not getting enough out of it. He then launched into a vigorous defense of his administration.
